Good Morning,

Grewelthorpe Church are having their Harvest Festival Service on Sunday 10th October at 10:30am.

We have been invited to take part in the service and you are all welcome to attend.

If your child/children can attend the service on the 10th, I would be grateful if you could let me know so that we can work with the children to help prepare our contribution to the service. I would be grateful if you could email me directly by Friday 24th if they are able to attend; headteacher@gfschools.co.uk.

Many thanks,
Pam Acheson
