

We are delighted that you and your class will be watching The Great Big Book Hullabaloo on Tuesday 30th November, LIVE from your very own classroom!

The Great Big Book Hullabaloo is going to be a celebration of reading with a FANTASTIC author/illustrator talking to you about his books and why he became an author. This year, the author is going to be:

★ Alex T. Smith

Alex is an author/illustrator, creator of such wonderful characters as Claude and Mr Penguin. When not working Alex enjoys doodling in his sketchbook, reading, people watching and eavesdropping. He is also a big fan of cake and a nice cup of tea.

If you would like a copy of any of these books (with a signed bookplate in) you can order them from our website littleriponbookshop.co.uk/greatbigbookhullabaloo either in advance or after the event.

The first three Mr Penguin books are £6 each (RRP6.99) and Mr Penguin and the Tomb of Doom is £9 (RRP9.99) and hardback. The books will include a bookplate signed by the author. They will be delivered to school after the event.

The books will also be for sale at The Little Ripon Bookshop, 12-13 Westgate Ripon if you would like to give us a visit.

If you aren't able to access our website or would prefer to pay by another method, please ring the shop on 01765 606689 or email us at info@littleriponbookshop.co.uk and we can sort that out for you.

Many thanks,
Gill and Phoebe
